INTERIOR DESIGN CONSULTING SERVICE

THE COMPANY

In-Awe Interiors Inc. is a full-service interior design firm that pride ourselves on offering our clients a custom service package which caters to each individual client's unique needs and budget. Below you'll find a brief outline of five levels of consultation services typically required by clients. Regardless of the type/size of the project and need for assistance from the designer by the client, you can be assured that In-Awe Interiors have a service to help you to take the next step

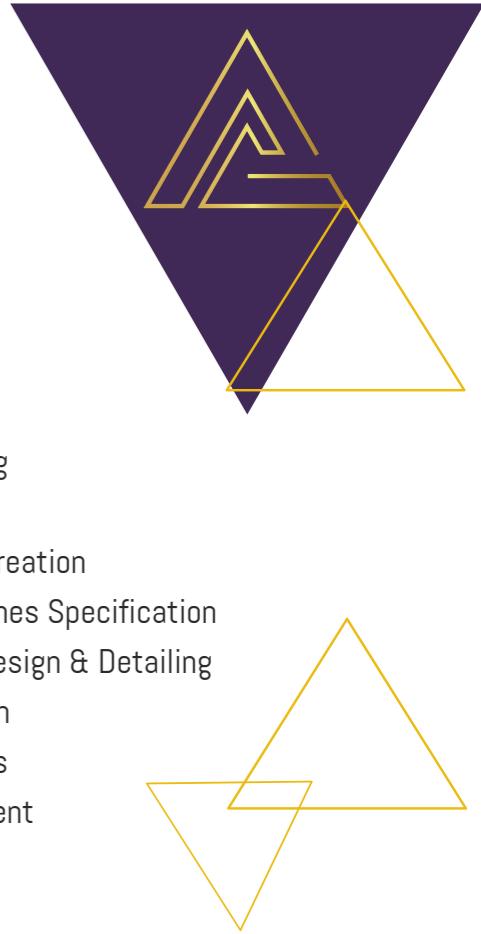

Our firm believes that our success is born from the methodology of prior planning and preparation of each phase of a project and the many details within it. Our system is exceptionally front-heavy to ensure that each decision is carefully thought through, assessed, confirmed, and placed into the design before the client makes any financial commitment. Why try to tackle your project alone when you can share in our decades of experience.
